A Lunch Lady Angel Hand Up Grant (HUG) is a needs-based, one-time financial assistance grant (one-time renewal to be determined) providing assistance to an applicant in need of assistance.

Eligibility

An individual is eligible to apply to the Lunch Lady Angels Grants Committee for a Hand Up Grant if she/he:

- is 18 years or older
- resides in the USD 113 district or has children attending a USD 113 school
- is a citizen of the United States
- is working or actively working in a training program or attending school
- qualifies with an initial screening application

Amount of Grant

A quote for the amount of the grant must be presented in the application. The total grant awarded is based on the availability of funds from the fund, the applicant's individual needs and ability to benefit from the grant.

Use of Grant

When a grant is awarded, any and all payments go directly to the vendor. The money is intended as a grant-in-aid for:

- Tuition or educational related expenses
- Costs car repairs that are essential for transportation for family needs or travel for training or educational purposes
- Health care costs that are not covered by insurance
- Costs related to work training, vocational training or education needed or desired for employment in a specific field.
- Home repairs
- Other TBD by committee

If agreed upon, the HUG may be listed in a publication or newsletter as a way the Lunch Lady Angels HUGs assist people.

The HUG application must be postmarked by Aug. 15, 2022. The HUG recipients will be announced by August 31, 2022

Please mail this application to GSCF P.O Box 111, Sabetha, KS 66534 or leave at any Sabetha school office
